What will my child learn?

- As a literacy enriched play structured program based on sound principles of child development, our focus includes play as well as guided activities.
- Children are encouraged to embrace their natural curiosity and inquisitiveness while building relationships with others.
- We respect that young children develop at different rates and in different ways and excel and benefit from opportunities where they can regulate their own behaviour.
- Through play, children can learn a wide range of concepts and skills that contribute to their emotional, social, physical, and cognitive development.
- Children learn by sharing stories, creating, questioning, discovering and listening through various activities and centers that support the child in their play centered environment.
